PARKING AT FIRST METHODIST – REHEARSAL & CONCERT

The main parking option is in the seven-floor Seaside parking garage on the corner of Jackson Street and Magnolia Avenue (access on Jackson). We will be providing access to the parking garage free of charge on the night of the rehearsal and night of the performance. On the performance night, the parking garage will be closing at 9:30PM.

MUSIC PURCHASE

If choir members wish to help the concert in a material way, they may do so by purchasing a choral score concert set for $10.00 per set. This includes all the pieces the choir will be singing. Scores can be picked up at the first rehearsal. All monies paid go to offsetting material program expenses.

Meet the Directors

Bill Shortal

Bill served the First United Methodist Church of Orlando for 23 years as Director of Music and Worship Arts. There he administered a program of 14 ensembles and annually directed two concerts with full orchestra. Prior to Orlando, Bill held similar positions with churches in Fort Myers, FL; Wood River, IL; and Sioux Falls, SD. He holds degrees from Millikin University (BME) and the University of Illinois (MM). Previously, Bill served The Fellowship of United Methodists in Music and Worship Arts as national president and vice-president, as well as president of the Florida chapter.

Leon Hauck

Leon Hauck brings with him 40 years of music performance and directing. He was the choir director at the Denver First Seventh-day Adventist Church for several years. He is also the director of Restoration, a vocal octet. He studied piano under Virginia Gene Rittenhouse for several years, and at the age of 17 placed first in the New England Piano Teachers Association competition. He is an active trombone player with the Markham Brass, as well as an active singer with Restoration.
